

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA RETIREMENT BOARD

CANDIDATES' QUALIFICATIONS STATEMENTS

JULIA A. SMITH	Active Retired Teachers should maintain their Social Security Benefits under the law provisions regardless of the Wind Falls Elimination provisions. Insurance medical provisions should remain constant without limiting the pension benefits reciprocity should be considered in certification process.
ELNORA LYNN PERRY SHANDS	I am a lifetime member of The National Council of Negro Women. Being a member of NCNW has given me the ability to lead, develop, and advocate for women as they support their families and communities. My commitment is to improve the quality of life for all women.
ARTHUR I. LINDER, SR.	I would very much like to be considered for the role of Trustee. I hope to bring to the team hard work, dedication and enthusiasm to provide the best benefits and services for all of our members. It would be an honor to serve on the Board as a Trustee
ALLEN E. CHIN	Retired educator who served DCPS for over 36 years as a teacher/administrator. Teacher/athletic director at Anacostia SHS and DCPS Director of Athletics. Qualifications based on being a teacher/administrator.
ANN ALLEN	My educational background and corporate manager experiences include two Master of Arts Degrees in Education and Community Arts. I've established foundations for blending academics with practical experiences to build teams that focus on targeted goals while remaining sensitive to issues that arise from teaching diverse people in today's competitive markets.
GLORIA H. MEADE	B.A. English, Classics, Hunter College M.A. English, N.Y.U. Grad School M.A. Education, G.W. University Special Education Teacher, retired; Legislative Representative, Washington Teachers Union, when I was a union teacher in DC.
ETHEL V. GORE	Degrees: Elem Ed., Mathematics, Ed. Admin. Experiences: Served as school administrator, supervisor, and teacher for K-12 programs. Taught as adjunct professor at several universities. Presented research during national conventions. Provided analysis for grant reviews, church finances and served as financial secretary for DCRTA.

MARY A. COLLINS	16 years of investment experience and training Member of the Council of Institutional Investors Board of Directors Representing over 50 pension funds Served as chair of the DC Retirement Board and Operations Presently Chair of Benefits Member of the Washington Teachers' Union Retiree Chapter and the DC Retired Educators Association.
PAUL LEROY TROTTER	I am a highly qualified candidate, because I began my teaching career at Turner Elem. School, and started computer labs in the elementary division, I was reassigned to Backus Middle School leading computers in each class room resource initiative. Then reassigned to Benjamin Banneker Academic High School as computer language
RONALD L. MORRIS, SR	1) Past VP/President of DCCFM 2) Taught Mathematics/ Physics 40 yrs DCPS 3) President of Snowbird Co. Inc. of Tenn – Retired 4) CEO Founder Dominion Enterprises Foundation 5) BS/MS – Howard University 6) JD – Potomac School of Law 7) Agape Bible College – DD, D/Humane Letters
CAROL LEOS	As a classroom teacher in DCPS, serving teachers, I was the WTU building representative for decades at the Anthony Hyde School In Georgetown. Serving my neighbors, I was on four Boards of our homeowners association, serving as President on two Boards. I will be glad to serve you.
MARJORIE TAYLOR	Education: B.A., M.A., MBA Employment: Retired Reading Teacher. Improved student's reading skills. Retired Trust Services assistant manager. Managed $15-40 million in trust funds per year for General Conference of SDA. Election Judge for Prince George's County Organizations: NAACP; ASALH; SCLC
MARIE B. JACKSON-PEOPLES	I began a career in the District of Columbia Public Schools in 1972 at Shepherd Elementary School worked as a second grade teacher for two years. I later returned to Trinity University in Washington, DC to attain a degree in Special Education. Later, I became a Special Education Teacher at